Advice to Young Lady Readers.

Young women, live to make others happy, and you will be happy! Live for yourself and you will be miserable! There never was an exception to this rule there never will be an exception.

Plan out your life on a big scale, whether you are a farmer's daughter or a shepherdess among the hills, or the flattered pet of a drawing room filled with statuesque pictures and bric-a-brac. Stop where you are and make a plan for your lifetime. You cannot be satisfied with a life of frivolity and glitz and indiscretion. Trust the world and it will cheat you if it does not destroy you. The redoubtable was the name of an enemy's ship that Lord Nelson spared twice from destruction, but that same ship afterwards sent the ball that killed him, and the world on which you smile away at your mother's dearest weapon.

Appreciate your mother while you have her. It is the almost universal testimony of young women who have lost mothers that they did not realize what she was to them until after her exit from this life. Indeed mother is in the appreciation of many a young lady a hindrance. The maternal inspection is often considered an obstacle. Mother has so many notions about that which is proper and that which is improper. It is astounding how much more many girls know at eighteen than their mothers at forty-five.

It does not make much difference whether you own your house or home but one little room in that house you can make that little room a home to you. You can furnish it with such beautifying thoughts, you can turn it with such sweet fancies, that it will be fairly luminous with their presence, and will be to you the very perfection of a home.

The Negging Wife.

University Magazine: In the course of investigation we discovered that in some homes, although the wife was not dissolute, she was nevertheless almost wholly to blame for the wretched conditions which existed. In these cases the husband was hard working and earned sufficient money from week to week to win a comfortable home, if he possessed a comfortable home, but the wife, unfortunately, was afflicted with the densest ignorance of home making. In some other instances the home was made unhappy by a nagging wife, with a rasping tongue. One woman of this type appeared in the juvenile court charging her husband with neglecting her and the children, and during the inquiry unconsciously gave ample evidence of her own ill-temper and tactlessness. The husband offered no evidence himself, but merely asked the court at the end of the trial, which it was impossible for the court to check, "Can you blame me for taking a drink occasionally?"

Encourage your child to be merry and to laugh aloud; a good, hearty laugh expands the chest and makes his blood bound freely along. Command me to a good laugh—not a little sniggering laugh, but to one that sounds through the house; it will not only do your child good; but will be a benefit to all who hear, and be an important means of driving the blues away from a dwelling. Merriment is very catching and spreads in a remarkable manner, few being able to resist the contagion. A hearty laugh is delightful harmony; indeed it is the best of all music.

Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine. Learn how to tell a story. A well told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sick room.

Let us learn to tip our hats as politely to the young lady who sews for a living or earns it by any honest toil as to one who teaches French or chews gum in seven different languages. Let us give a warm clasp to the tiller of the soil the fireman or brakeman as we do to the doctor or lawyer. Let us recognize honesty and industry wherever found, and the time will soon come when there will be an army of bright, intelligent young men and women at the bottom of the ladder, ready to labor at any honorable calling. Let us remember that the most beautiful lives have blossomed in the darkest places, as pure, white lilies, as full of fragrance in the slimy, stagnant waters. Wealth birth and official station may do secure to their possessors an extreme superficial courtesy, but they never did nor never can command the reverence of heart. The most beautiful flowers are hidden in some shady nook; so the most beautiful lives are often found in an humble home at the foot of the ladder.

However worldly and sinful people are they want their children good. How are you going to have them good? Buy them a few good books? Teach them a few good catechisms? Bring them to church? That is all very well, but of little final result unless you do it with the grace of God in your heart. Do you realize that your children are started for eternity? Are they on the right road? Those little forms that are now so bright and beautiful—when they have scattered in the dust, there will be an immortal spirit living on in a mighty theatre of action, and your faithfulness or your neglect now is deciding their destiny.

The mother who brings her children up in truthfulness and sobriety to useful spheres, and who looketh well to the ways of her household when the passing of time has left the frosts of winter in her hair, and the beauty of youth has fled, then is she worthy of all honor. To our mind no nobler epitaph to a woman's memory could be written than that she has been a good wife and mother.

One of the most elegant lines of 1918 styles in spring hats for ladies and misses ever shown in this city will be on display in a few days at Burton's store.

MOTHER! YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVFRISH, FROM CONSTIPATION

IF TONGUE IS COATED, BREATH BAD, STOMACH SOUR, CLEAN LIVER AND BOWELS

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are charged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs;" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

USE 'CASCARETS' FOR LIVER AND BOWELS WHEN CONSTIPATED

WHEN BILIOUS, HEADACHY, SICK, FOR SOUR STOMACH, BAD BREATH.

Get a ten-cent box. Take a Cascaret tonight to cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. Few men and women who have headache, coated tongue, a bad cold, are bilious, nervous, upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets immediately cleanse the regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

WE MUST HANG TOGETHER.

By Theodosia Garrison of the Vigilantes.

Said Benjamin Franklin of Pennsylvania, putting down the pen with which he had just signed the Declaration of Independence:

"Gentlemen, we must all hang together or assuredly we shall hang separately."

In a single phrase he combined an epigram, a warning, a declaration of faith and, incidentally, framed a motto for the present generation.

The value of team work for the national good is unquestioned; the value of the individual beyond the mere he contributes to the general power is negligible. The undoubted fact acknowledged by everybody and more often quoted than applied, waited to be demonstrated in its entirety by the Imperial German Government, who after its fashion, lost no time in claiming it as a personal discovery, marking it with the "made in Germany" stamp and promptly christening it "efficiency."

Mind you, it is the German Government that made its people efficient, and that by the simple and direct method of the brutal overseer who lashed a gang of slaves into the perfect workmen that produced the 100 per cent result he desired.

The individual who with all his heart wishes a thing accomplished doesn't have to be whipped into the work, and the difference between slavery and freedom, between autocracy and democracy, lies in that individual himself.

Unless he is not only willing, but eager to do his part in the big work at hand, he is not fit for democracy—he is the slacker who only works at the whip's end and only a tyrant can get anything from him.

I am told that the German citizen would not think twice about subscribing to the German equivalent of our Liberty Loan. I believe it; doubtless a certain commendable promptness characterized Attila's following.

Let it be our pride that we do not need a tyrant to force our results. It is for us to demonstrate to the world that the hand of autocracy is no stronger in assuring efficiency than the spirit of democracy. Unless we do this, the face we turn to the world can be nothing but a shamed one. We will have failed to do for ourselves what we might have been forced to do, and the brand of our unworthiness will be upon us.

"The Nation," said President Wilson, "needs all men, but it needs each man, not in the field that will most pleasure him but in the endeavor that will best serve the common good."

There is no whip over us; the matter is entirely in our own hands, and the gentlemen, we must hang together."

WHITESBURG, KY.

Special to the News.

Whitesburg, Ky., April 2.—It is said here today that a slight coal car shortage is prevailing in some of the big mining plants of the Elk Horn field of Letcher County, operators running but three to four days a week.

It is said embargo on some of the principal railroads is the cause of the shortage, and that these will be removed within the next few days. Within the past two months mines have been operating practically full time, with both day and night shifts—the most active in the history of the development of the coal fields. With the induction of the score or more of new operations and increases in old plants it is safe to say that the output of this field will be more than doubled before the close of the present year.

James Richie, believed to be the leader of a bold gang of bootleggers of moonshine whiskey venders of the Virginia state line section, was arrested at midnight Saturday at a point near Seeco above, here here, in the coal fields by Special Police Officer Elvin Hart, of Fleming. The officers have been watching the band of illicit whiskey venders for some time. Other arrests are expected. Richie was brought to jail at Whitesburg pending a preliminary hearing. For some time moonshine whiskey has been carried into Seeco and the other towns in that section and peddled out. As a result mining operations have been much handicapped.

The Letcher Circuit Court will be convened here next week—a most important session. A large number of murder cases will come up for hearing. Practically the whole of the three weeks term will be taken up in the criminal docket. This is the largest number of murder cases ever on the docket in Letcher county.

A few days ago the Elk Horn Junior Coal Co., was organized with $100,000 capital by Richard P. Ernst and others for a new coal development between Millstone and LaVern. In this county. Already the new work is being launched. There is more development work in progress in Letcher county at this time.

Cincinnati man discovers drug that loosens corns so that they lift out

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezone, the recent discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn as it lifts out with the fingers.

A quarter of an ounce costs very little at any store which handles drugs, but this is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn or toughened, callus and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn or callus is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

WHAT HUNNISH CAPTIVITY MEANS TO US

Even while horror mounts upon horror and thousands of heroic defenders of civilization are falling in Flanders fields there continue to vex the souls of patriots members of professions and representatives of interests who want their pitiful claims to be considered before the demands of war. It is not necessary that they should be minutely described or even named. The country knows and instinctively loathes them, shrinking in disgust from their leering and loathly threats that unless their blackmailing is acquiesced in they will suspend military preparations. With these repellent rogues should be classed the slackers, the conscientious objectors and other effeminate. All and sundry of this unspeakable element should commit to memory the words of one who understands the Hun—who has seen his foul work and who appreciates his aims:

"We are fighting that we may not be herded into actual slavery such as the Germans have established by force of their arms in large parts of Europe. We are fighting against eighteen hours a day of forced labor under lash or at the point of the bayonet, with a dog's death and a dog's burial at the end of it. We are fighting that men, women and children may not be tortured, burned and mutilated in the public streets."

When militarism takes the place of democratic government, the inevitable result of a German victory, this is what will result:

"Under that dispensation man will become once more the natural prey, body and goods, of his better armed neighbor. Women will be the mere instrument of continuing the breed, the vessel for man's lust and cruelty, and labor will become a thing to be knocked in the head if it dares to give trouble, and worked to death if it does not."

The Russian idealists who believed otherwise are now awake in bitter captivity. If the American addepaters cannot now comprehend the lesson of their awful fate, it is, perhaps, well that the Hun shall come to teach it to them in his convincing fashion and with his compelling weapons—the lash and the bayonet.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

It Cost the Average Family Less Than 10c Per Week for Packer's Profit in 1917.

The Meat Bill is one of the large items in the family budget but less than 10 cents per week of it goes to the packer in profits.

In converting live stock into meat and getting it into the hands of the retail dealer, the packer performs a complex and essential service with the maximum of efficiency.

The above statement is based on Swift & Company's 1917 figures and Federal Census data:

Swift & Company's total output (Meat and by-products) - 5,570,000,000 Pounds

Swift & Company's total Profit - $34,650,000.00

Profit per pound - $.0062

U. S. Meat Consumption - 170 pounds per person per year

- 170 pounds at $.0062 = $1.05 per person per year

The average family 4 1/2 persons = $4.72 per family per year
